VNB EMPLOYEE SPOTLIGHT

Buddy Chicklo Featured in Hot VWs Magazine

VNB's Winchester courier Buddy Chicklo and his Volks Wagon Beetle were recently featured Hot VWs magazine. Buddy hadn't raced his '69 VW Beetle, named Hot Chocolate, for over 25 years, but recently brought it out of retirement. It is mentioned in the article that during a recent all day battle of 92 cars, "one of the highlights of the day was witnessing the 'Hot Chocolate' Beetle making a few passes." It was a well-known, successful racer in the 1970s, but hadn't been on the track much in recent years.

Here is an excerpt from the article, "My drag racing days started back in the '60s. I ran a '34 Plymouth and later a '56 Chevy; but my real love for drag racing started when I built a '69 Bug. I owned and operated a VW repair shop [Chicklo Auto Repair & Sales] for nearly 31 years, and had the opportunity to meet Gene Berg and buy all my engine parts from him. I stopped racing over 25 years ago. Last year, Hot Chocolate and I came out of retirement for an old timers race. My son Todd has always loved the car; he has raced it in 2018 and 2019, and plans to compete as often as he can. So, I guess Hot Chocolate will always be in the
