IN THE COMMUNITY

Virginia National Bank is proud to be a leading supporter of non-profits in the community for the past 20 years. We partner with charities on many fronts, such as providing marketing opportunities they would otherwise not have the resources to afford. We also encourage our employees to be involved with non-profits by serving as a director on local boards, volunteering their time for community service, and donating to causes that are specific to their interests.

VNB's culture inspires employees to become a part of the conversation for positive change.

VNB BLOG

A business loan or a line of credit—what's the best way to fund your company's growth? Read more here to see what our experts recommend.

VNB is grateful to have MarieBette Café and Bakery as a customer and we're excited to see their business continue to grow. Owners, Jason Becton and Patrick Evans, met at the International Culinary Center (formerly the French Culinary Institute) and opened their European-inspired bakery MarieBette Café and Bakery in 2014 that was named after their daughters, Marian and Betty. They offer a variety of unique baked goods made from high-quality ingredients and are beloved by many in the Charlottesville community.
