VNB HIGHLIGHTS

VNB COMMERCIAL LENDING TRAINING PROGRAM

Earlier this year, Virginia National Bank launched a Commercial Lending Training program designed to create a new pathway for college-aged candidates or individuals that are interested in a career change into banking.

Course material is offered by the Center for Financing Training and upon completion of the coursework, a Certificate in Business and Commercial Lending is issued to the students. Courses are offered online, instructors are bankers, and courses are transferable as college credits, accredited by St. Joseph's College of Maine. Coursework consists of 45 credit hours and includes Principles of Banking, Accounting, Macroeconomics, Statistics, Analyzing Financial Statements, Commercial Lending, among others. After the completion of the coursework, the next step is hands-on training with VNB's experienced lenders.

Congratulations to our first two graduates of the Commercial Lending Training program, John Acchione and Jacek Wolicki!
